TEMPORARY FOOD FACILITY PERMIT TYPES

Annual vs. 1-7 Day Permits

If you are operating at only one event for 7 consecutive days or less you would apply for the 1-7 day permit at your appropriate preparation level (see below).

If you are operating at more than one community event, you may apply for the Annual permit at your appropriate preparation level (see below).

- A TFF may only operate as part of an approved community event.

Preparation Level

FULL PREPARATION

Full preparation permits are issued to temporary food facilities that engage in sampling, cooking, packaging, portioning, assembling, processing, or hot holding of PHF. Full Preparation would include the following activities:

- Hot holding of potentially hazardous foods
- Serving raw animal protein
- Thawing food
- Cooling of cooked potentially hazardous foods
- Reheating previously cooked potentially hazardous foods

Full Preparation temporary food facilities may include barbeque operations, serving previously prepared potentially hazardous foods, pasta, tacos, paella, stir fry, cooked rice dishes, meat and/or vegetable pot pies, kebabs, pizza, sushi, poke, oysters, etc.

LIMITED PREPARATION

Limited Preparation permits are issued for temporary food facilities that sell or give away unpackaged potentially hazardous foods, conduct low-risk food preparation (such as coffee, snow cones, kettle corn, and lemonade), or that conduct "limited-food preparation" as defined in the California Retail Food Code:

- Heating, frying, baking, roasting food for immediate service
- Chopping or slicing of potentially hazardous foods
- Steaming or boiling of hot dogs
- Cooking and seasoning to order
- Cold holding of unpackaged potentially hazardous foods
- Scooping of ice cream
- Blending of potentially hazardous foods

Limited Preparation temporary food facilities may include heating and holding hot dogs or tamales, preparing corn dogs, preparing cold deli sandwiches, ice cream sundaes, funnel cakes, espresso drinks, smoothies, snow cones, kettle corn, and lemonade.

Definitions

HOT DOG means a whole, cured, cooked sausage that is skinless or stuffed in a casing, that may be known as a frankfurter, frank, furter, wiener, red hot, vienna, bologna, garlic bologna, or knockwurst, and that may be served in a bun or roll.

POTENTIALLY HAZARDOUS FOOD means a food that requires time or temperature control to limit pathogenic micro-organism growth or toxin formation. Potentially hazardous food includes a food of animal origin that is raw or heat-treated, a food of plant origin that is heat-treated or consists of raw seed sprouts, cut melons, cut tomatoes or mixtures of cut tomatoes that are not modified to render them unable to support pathogenic micro-organism growth or toxin formation, and garlic-in-oil mixtures that are not acidified or otherwise modified at a food processing plant in a way that results in mixtures that do not support growth or toxin formation.

TEMPORARY FOOD FACILITY POLICY

Please note the following:

- A TFF may only operate as part of an approved community event.
- It is prohibited to prepare or store food at a private home, with the exception of approved cottage food products from a permitted / regulated Cottage Food Operator (CFO).
- A TFF permit is required for each TFF operating at the same time in Humboldt County. For example, a kettle corn vendor who sets up a TFF at two community events held on the same day, at the same time, would require two permits.
- Any food facility found to be operating without a valid food facility permit is subject to immediate closure and a penalty which may be up to three times the amount of the permit fee.

A Temporary Food Facility, sometimes called a "Food Booth," is a food facility that operates out of temporary facilities approved by the DEH for a period of time not to exceed 25 days in a 90-day period in conjunction with a single, weekly, or monthly community event.

A "community event" means an event of civic, political, public, or educational nature to which the public is invited, including state and county fairs, city festivals, and circuses. Examples include Redwood Acres Fair, Fourth of July Festivals, North Country Fair, Apple Harvest Festival, and other large-scale events. Non-profit organizations that offer food to members and guests at occasional events not associated with a community event (pancake breakfasts, church dinners, ice cream socials, and other fund-raisers) are not considered community events. Community events with more than one booth are required to obtain a Temporary Food Facility Coordinator permit, and each booth operator must be approved by the coordinator in order to participate.

The California Retail Food Code regulates Temporary Food Facilities, and specifies operational standards. DEH has a free informational brochure that describes the requirements for construction and operation of a food booth.

Operators of Temporary Food Facilities must obtain a permit to operate issued by DEH. In accordance with Section 16102 of the Business and Professions Code, veterans can apply for a Veteran Exempt Permit if they do not serve alcohol.

DEH does not require permits for food booths that offer only commercially pre-packaged foods that are not potentially hazardous, dispense only beverages that are not potentially hazardous, or permitted Cottage Food Operations (CFO) vending only their approved products in its approved CFO packaging. Examples include canned beverages, packaged snacks (chips, crackers, nuts, etc.), and candy bars. In order to qualify, food items must be offered in the original manufacturer's packaging, to be opened only by the consumer. Beer and other non-potentially hazardous beverages dispensed from a bulk dispensing unit will be considered and approved by DEH on a case-by-case basis. Mixed drinks (i.e. bar service) and / or serving ice does require a permit.

Applications for Temporary Food Facility permits must be received at DEH by 5:00 p.m. no later than fourteen (14) days before event. Applications received or postmarked after the deadline will be accepted, provided that the application is accompanied with an additional late fee.

The person in charge of the food booth will be contacted by an inspector and interviewed on the information provided including safe food-handling practices. A 1-7 day permit when signed and stamped by DEH is valid only for the date(s), location, operation described, and event listed on the application. This permit must be displayed at the event. Any person who operates a food facility shall obtain all necessary permits to conduct business, including but not limited to, this permit issued by DEH. A person in charge must be present at the Temporary Food Facility at all times.

If you need more information on Temporary Food Facilities, please call DEH at 707-445-6215.
